

Sunday, October 15

ROOM BV 1 • 14.00-17.45 h

SYMPOSIUM

"NEUROETHICS"

Organised by the Special Interest Group (SIG) on Neuroethics in co-operation with EFNA, the EFNS Committee for European Co-operation and the EFNS Scientist Panel on Stroke

Allocation of resources in neurology:
East and West
A challenge to European solidarity

Opening address

Franz Gerstenbrand, Vienna, Austria,
Chairman of the SIG on Neuroethics;
Jes Olesen, Copenhagen, Denmark,
President of the EFNS

Part I:

EFNS and EFNA - collaboration between patients and neurologists:
Ethical aspects and practical considerations of a new partnership

• Introduction

Holger Baumgartner, Innsbruck,
Austria, Secretary, SIG Neuroethics

• The aims of the alliance

Mary Baker, London, UK,
President of EFNA;
Natan Bornstein, Tel Aviv, Israel,
Chair EFNS Liaison Committee

• Patients - the emerging resource in neurology

Alistair Newton, London UK
European Dystonia Federation

• Communication and collaboration between health sciences and society in Europe

Peteris Zilgalvis, Strassbourg, France,
Council of Europe

• Discussion

Moderator:
Franz Gerstenbrand, Vienna, Austria

Part II:

Medical ethical and social aspects of neurological disease - e.g. stroke:
Results of the European Stroke Care
Inventory

• Introduction

Franz Gerstenbrand, Vienna, Austria

• Acute neurological stroke care in Europe

Michael Brainin, Maria Gugging,
Austria

• Stroke care in:

- Czech Republic: Pavel Kalvach, Prague
- Poland: Anna Czlonkowska, Warsaw
- Scandinavia: Bo Norrving, Lund, Sweden

• Stroke care: the patients and the family

Marianne Agger, Jerslov, Denmark

• Discussion and conclusion

Moderator: Michael Brainin;
Maria Gugging, Austria

Coffee break

• Round table:

Transferring resources - a call for co-operation and action

Moderators:
Franz Gerstenbrand, Vienna, Austria;
Carlo Alberto Defanti, Milano, Italy

Jes Olesen, Copenhagen, Denmark
EFNS President; Krzysztof Selmaj, Lodz,
Poland, EFNS Committee for European Cooperation; Pavel Kalvach, Czech Republic, EFNS Committee for European Cooperation;
Michael Brainin, Maria Gugging,
Chairman EFNS Scientist Panel on
Stroke; Mary Baker, London, UK
EFNA President; Peteris Zilgalvis,
Strassbourg, France, Council of Europe

• Impulse Statements:

Training clinical investigators in Eastern Europe

Holger Baumgartner, Innsbruck, Austria

Medical equipment and devices for Eastern Europe

Heinz Reichmann, Dresden, Germany

• Round table and discussion

• Summary:

Holger Baumgartner, Innsbruck, Austria;
Franz Gerstenbrand, Vienna, Austria;
Tim Steiner, London, UK

• Orthodox psychotherapy: semantic approach and application to the process of adjustment to disability

A.N. Panyperis, T.S. Triantafillou,
Athens, Greece

ROOM BV 2 • 08.30-12.30 h

SECOND SPANISH-PORTUGUESE MEETING

Organisers:

Guillermo Izquierdo, Seville, Spain;
José Chacon, Seville, Spain;
José Ferro, Lisbon, Portugal

I. Vascular diseases

Chair:

José Ferro, Lisbon, Portugal

• Genetics in vascular diseases

José Manuel Garcia Moreno, Seville,
Spain

Portuguese speaker TBC

II. New treatments

Chair:

Guillermo Izquierdo, Seville, Spain

• New treatment for multiple sclerosis

Guillermo Izquierdo, Seville, Spain

• Iberic experience in the treatment of multiple sclerosis

Joao Carlos Correia Sá, Lisbon,
Portugal

III. Movement disorders

Chair:

José Chacon, Seville, Spain

• Cognitive impairment in Huntington's disease

Luis Redondo, Badajoz, Spain

• Toxic psychosis in Parkinson's disease

José Chacon, Seville, Spain

IV. Cognitive studies

Chair:

José Ferro, Lisbon, Portugal

• Cognitive impairment in motor neurone disease

Giorgio Patrignani, Seville, Spain
Portuguese speaker TBC